

CLINTON PRESIDENTIAL RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP

Are you a graduate student or academic specializing in the humanities and social sciences with a strong interest in American history or presidential legacies?

This opportunity may be for you!

The Clinton Presidential Library and the Clinton Foundation are offering fellowships for researchers to access and utilize the presidential archives.

APPLY BY MARCH 21

Don't miss out on this incredible opportunity to receive a grant ranging from $1,250 to $5,000 USD to support your research project.

clintonfoundation.org/cprf
researchfellowship@clintonfoundation.org

ELIGIBILITY

- Must be a current graduate student based at a U.S. institution.
- OR*
- Have a PhD officially conferred from a U.S. institution within the past eight years.

APPLICATION MATERIALS

- Completed application form with a fiscal sponsor identified. The fiscal sponsor will receive and manage the administration of funds and can be any 501(c)(3) organization (for example, a university or college).
- A curriculum vitae including academic experience and list of publications.
- Project proposal with a focus on how the Clinton presidential archives would be central to the completion of the project, the overarching objective, and potential use of the project (maximum of 300 words).
- Outlined budget plan for the award.
- Two supporting letters from academic advisors or professional colleagues (maximum of two pages each).

